

i drive a big rig in arizona,california,and nevada. i always listen to my xm radio for updates in traffic and weather because it is there right away i dont have to flip through all the stations on the radio to find the information, which is very difficult to do since im driving a big rig down the road. thank you in advance for not limiting the satellite radio programming.